Note: If you have any difficulties with registration, please contact conference@feefhs.org and our registration manager will assist you.

We wish all of you good health and well-being during this time, and hope to have you join us in later this year for help in discovering your Central and East European ancestors!

JewishGen Romania-Moldova Database

JewishGen's Romania Database includes over two dozen component databases for Romania and Moldova. Much of Moldova was historically Bessarabia, Russian Empire. Part of it was also formerly Bukowina/Bucovina, Austrian Empire. The database continues to grow with new component databases, such as Tiraspol Uyezds Revision Lists and Moldovan Victims of Soviet Oppression, as well as updates to existing databases, such as additions to the Bucovina Vital Records collection and Bessarabian Revision Lists.

GenTeam Die genealogische Datenbank

If you are researching in the countries of the former Austrian Empire, you should get to know GenTeam. This site, available via free registration, contains over 21 million entries contributed by users, covering Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Slovenia, and more, even some parts of Germany. Includes indexes to various records including Roman Catholic and Protestant church records, Jewish vital records, obituaries, military records, nobility records, and more. There are also reference resources, one of the most useful being the GenTeam gazetteer. The site was recognized as one the best European Genealogy websites by Family Tree Magazine.

Note: Be sure to read the instructions when registering. It may take a day or so before you received the confirmation email.
