

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Foundation for East European Family History Studies

View this email in your browser

FEEFHS News

*The Foundation for East European Family History
Studies
September 2025 Newsletter*

FEEFHS Conference 2026

Thanks to all those who joined us for FEEFHS 2025! If you registered for the conference, you have access to the recordings of all class sessions through the end of the year.

It was announced that the next FEEFHS Conference will be held the first week of August 2026. We are excited to share more details as the conference approaches and look forward to learning with you all.

What is Diaspora?

"Diaspora" refers to the spreading of a group of people from their original homeland to other locations. Sometimes a diaspora can include relocation to a variety of places, while some groups continue to gather together as they build their new homes. The resources below may help you as you research the diaspora of your ancestors.

Ukrainians in New Jersey

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

growing online collection to discover more about this unique group.

Germans from Russia in the Midwest

While the Germans from Russia settled in other areas (such as the Pacific Northwest), two of the largest organizations for Germans from Russia research are located in the Midwest. AHSGR, centered in Lincoln, Nebraska, and GRHS, located in Bismarck, North Dakota, each house a wealth of resources for your research.

Czechs and Slovaks in America

The Czechoslovak Genealogical Society International calls St. Paul, Minnesota, its home. Through a quarterly publication, online resources, and regular conferences (such as this year's conference in Kansas City), this society aims to support those with Czech and Slovak roots as they search for their families. Hungarian, Jewish, and Ukrainian groups from those areas are also recognized and welcomed.

Romanian Communities

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Minnesota is also the home of the Romanian Genealogy Society. Where Romanian research can sometimes be daunting, this society provides insights and support to assist you in your path to discovery.

Luxembourgers to America

Luxembourgish roots are celebrated at the Luxembourg American Cultural Society and Center in Belgium, Wisconsin. With a variety of events and opportunities to connect with others of Luxembourgish heritage, this society may be a helpful starting point for those researching the unique dynamic of Luxembourg.

Early German Settlers in America

The Palatines to America German Genealogy Society, with its homebase in Columbus, Ohio, focuses on early German settlers in North America. The society has

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

What Other Resources Have Helped You?

We would love to hear about other groups or websites that have helped you in your genealogical research! Connect with us through your preferred social media platform (linked through the icons below).

ShareTweetForward to Friend

Copyright © 2025 Foundation for East European Family History Studies, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

